

Dudley Improta

Dudley moved to Missoula in 1976. He completed a Master's Degree at the University of Montana and worked for the Campus Recreation Department for 32 years; helping found the UM Outdoor Program. He also co-founded Missoulaavalanche.org which helps fund the West Central Montana Avalanche Center. Dudley was an educator and forecaster for the Avalanche Center for the last 16 years.

Dudley lives in Ward 4 of Missoula with his wife, Jane McAllister. He serves as an alternate member of the Planning Board appointed by the City Council and serves on the Local Emergency Planning Committee.