

Vince Caristo

Vince Caristo works as a Project Manager at the Missoula Urban Transportation District. He is certified as professional planner through the American Institute of Certified Planners (AICP). He was born and raised in New Jersey, and moved to Missoula in 2016.

Vince earned a bachelor's degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering from the University of Virginia. Following college, Vince worked for a regional non-profit in Charlottesville, Virginia, the Alliance for Community Choice in Transportation, promoting smart-growth and sustainable transportation. Prior to moving to Missoula, he lived in Bloomington, Indiana, where worked for five years as the City's Bicycle and Pedestrian Coordinator.