

_____ SEASON IS HERE

(GET READY)

Be ADVISED that conditions in the area are such that _____ hazards may be forthcoming in the near future.

- NOW IS THE TIME to PREPARE: ensure that you are fully prepared with a plan and resources needed to ensure that you and your family can remain safe and informed should conditions change suddenly.
- This is the time to MAKE A PLAN: check supplies, review and/or revise family safety plans, and coordinate with authorities about the safety of your family and property.
- Authorities will make every attempt to advise the public as conditions change. Area media outlets will be asked to broadcast updates as they are given to keep the public informed of changing conditions or impending hazards. STAY INFORMED
- If you are not enrolled in SMART 911, now is the perfect time to do so. Log on to smart911.com and create your safety profile. This service will enhance your ability to receive alerts and provide information to responders to enhance your family's safety.

Take the time NOW to plan for your own safety as well as the safety and security of your property by utilizing the resources available in the community.
